

Maitreya's Final Wishes and Testament

This is Joseph Emmanuel (Maitreya), with a sound mind and under no pressure, after a great struggle to make this as close to the Will of God as possible. This will be my final wishes and testament after I leave this body.

1. After tremendous tries, actions, tests, trying many other ways, etc., my conclusion has returned me to the original understanding that Isaac Emmanuel (Noor) (my biological son) has been anointed to continue the Mission after me. He will serve as a steward, maintaining and protecting the Mission until my next reincarnation. His primary task (with the help of the rest of the organization's dedicated members) is to find me in my next lifetime. He is the second person (the first is my wife, Ellen or Sarah-Ji) who knows me well and can be most helpful in finding me in the next lifetime.

The remainder of his tasks and duties will be to establish the Mission according to what I have put down as an example (the way the Center should be, the different organizational structures I tried, expand on them, and make them work as it is Revealed to all of you). However, Noor has no authority to change or interpret the Revelation, which is already Perfect (even after I am found in my next reincarnation, I cannot change the Teachings!). Noor can participate with others in discussing the Teachings, but without drawing authoritative conclusions. To emphasize, he is merely a steward.

Another of his duties will be to take care of my wife and his mother, Ellen (Sarah-Ji) (in case I leave my body before her), providing for her needs with the greatest respect and purity of Heart. She might not have many financial needs (as she is the legal inheritor of our belongings after me), but besides what she has, she should be provided with whatever else she needs.

2. All my personal possessions (if I continue living after my wife) will be transferred to Isaac Emmanuel, with 10% of them to be added to the Mission funds (whenever any part is converted to cash).

3. Meanwhile, while I am alive, I will be the sole source of decision-making until/if I release this power or after I leave my body. In my absence, Noor is in charge.

4. Isaac and I are the only current members of the Round Table body. When I pass, Isaac will be the only "permanent member" of the Round Table, as it is explained in the essay "Passing of the Scepter" in Supplements in THOTH. The explanation and rules of the Round Table will apply as described in that essay. In the future, other most dedicated members (Elects) might be added to this body, but Noor will be the head until I am found, and Noor will be replaced by me in my next incarnation.

In the unlikely situation that the Round Table tries to make a decision that is clearly against the Teaching or attempts to change it in any way, the steward (Noor) has the right to veto/override that decision!
